IKW international Ostercup Berlin-Moabit 2014
17. -21. April 2014 in Berlin

Eine Initiative der Deutschen Telekom

What you need Teamwear in cooperation with the child initiative „Ich kann was“ of the German Telekom is inviting for the second international Basketballcup of Berlin-Moabit. The primarily youth oriented tournament will/should/shall be lead by the motives of friendship, fair-play and social skills but also by adventures and last but not least a lot of basketball. Next years tournament is also supposed to be starring a men, women and a wheelchair competition, expanding last years youth only tournament. Last year 70 teams out of 6 different nations participated in 10 different categories, making it a great success. The IKW Cup 2014 will be supervised by 50 employees to ensure the flawless procedure of the tournament and to add even a little more character to last years organisation. Referees can now sign up on our webpage to be part of 2014 great event. Within the tournament there will also be time to tour around Berlin, one of the most visited cities all over the world. Adjustments to the game schedule can be agreed upon to enable coaches to manage two teams.

Preamble about Berlin-Moabit and the court situation

Moabit is a district of the sector Berlin Mitte since the year of 2001 in which an administrative reform combined the sectors of Mitte and Tiergarten to Mitte, belonging to the city of Berlin. Currently there are 60000 inhabitants live in the district of Moabit, numbers rising. With Berlin Central station close by Moabit is located in the centre of the metropolis and relishes great availability of local transportation to either East or Westside of the city. The Parliament and the famous Brandenburger Tor too are close by and easy to arrive from our central court, which will be placed at Alt-Moabit 10. All courts can be reached by short walks of maximum 15 min. There will be minimize 6 Courts, 4 being full courts(taking a shower only in basketballgms or In Hostels/Hotels), all located in eastern Moabit and the so called Hansa Viertel. In Addition to great and central positioning Moabit also offers tones of small restaurants and snack bars which offer good food for little money.
